ATLANTIC LEAGUE NEWS AND NOTES

Pennant Races: The second-half North race is back-and-forth as both Lancaster and So. Maryland had a share of the lead last week... Lancaster went 19-9 in July, its best month since going 20-6 in May 2018... In the South, Gastonia put up a 22-5 July record and has opened a 7.5-game lead over Kentucky.

No-Hitter: Four GAS pitchers combined to no-hit Lexington 11-0 on 7/27... Roger Bernal, in his first appearance as a Honey Hunter, threw five innings and walked five but did not yield a hit... Euclides Leyer fanned three in his two innings... Quinton Torres-Costa and Sam Bordner each had one strikeout in their one inning of work... Luis Castro went 4-for-4 and Luis Roman drove in four runs with a pair of doubles.

First Half-Week Standouts: Lexington's Jordany Valdespin collected four hits vs. Gastonia 7/26... Alex Crosby had two homers and five RBI in SMD's 9-8 win over LAN on 7/26... LAN's Melvin Mercedes hit two HR in the same game... Long Island's Alejandro De Aza went 4-for-4 with two doubles and a HR vs. Staten Island 7/26... KY's Khris Davis had two HR and five RBI vs. High Point 7/26... York's J.C. Encarnacion tied the league season-high with seven at-bats vs. Charleston 7/27... Staten Island's Rusney Castillo went 5-for-6 vs. Long Island on 7/27... LEX's Rusber Estrada had two HR and four RBI vs. Gastonia 7/28... York's Jorge Martinez fanned 10 in six innings vs. Charleston 7/28... KY's Chris Shaw was 8-for-14 with five RBI vs. High Point... High Point's Zander Wiel drove in eight runs with three HR vs. KY... SMD's Mat Latos recorded two saves vs. LAN.
