ATLANTIC LEAGUE NEWS AND NOTES

Contracts Sold: Recent MLB contract purchases have included Charleston RHP Kevin Herget to Tampa Bay, High Point RHP Brady Lail to Toronto, Wild Health Genomes RHP Riley Smith to Colorado, and Gastonia RHP Spencer Bivens to San Francisco. Last month's purchases included Gastonia INF Ti'Quan Forbes to Arizona.

Shelby to Kentucky: Former MLB OF and Lexington native John Shelby has joined the Wild Health Genomes coaching staff. A former first round draft pick of the Orioles in 1977, he played 11 years in MLB and won two World Championships. Shelby's youngest son, Jaren, is a member of the Genomes and a former player at the University of Kentucky.

Staten Island Gets Win: Staten Island won its first game as a franchise with a 4-1 decision over Lexington on May 3. Trailing 1-0 in the fifth, the FerryHawks used a sac fly from Rymer Liriano and a two-run single by Brandon Wagner to take a 3-1 lead. Staten Island added an insurance run in the eighth when Ben Ruta doubled to score Kelsie Whitmore for the 4-1 final.

BY THE NUMBERS

12

Southern Maryland's franchise-best winning streak from April 22 until May 6

41

Number of stolen bases for league leader Gastonia

60

Career home runs for OF Melky Mesa of York, tied for third-most in Revs' history

76

Career wins for Southern Maryland RHP Daryl Thompson, the ALPB all-time leader

Good Weeks: Kentucky's Riley Mahan had a great week, hitting .500 (12-24) with four doubles, 24 total bases, seven RBI and just one strikeout... Charleston's Scott Kelly hit .435 last week (10-23)... Chris Shaw of the Wild Health Genomes exactly matched Kelly's numbers at .435... Jack Reinheimer of Gastonia finished the week with six extra-base hits, including three homers and 11 RBI... He had six RBI and two home runs at York on 5/5 and then had a homer and five RBI on 5/8 at Staten Island.

Milestones: Long Island 2B Vladimir Frias hit a two-run single on Sunday against Lancaster to mark the 1,000th hit of his professional career... Southern Maryland's Daryl Thompson extended his ALPB career record with his 76th win on Sunday in a 9-7 decision over the Wild Health Genomes... York's OF Melky Mesa hit two home runs last week to move into third place on the Revs' all-time homer list with 60... York's Jim Fuller earned his 31st career save on 5/9 to move into a tie for third in team history with R.J. Rodriguez.

Longest At-Bat Of The Week: High Point's Tyler Ladendorf flew out after 11 pitches from York's Jorge Martinez on Sunday, May 8.

Streaks: Long Island's Sam Travis had his 13-game hitting streak snapped on May 8 in the second game of a doubleheader with Lancaster... The longest active hitting streaks belong to the Wild Health Genomes Riley Mahan who has hit in 11 straight and Long Island's Johnni Turbo, also at 11... Mahan is riding a seven-game streak of multiple hits... He has collected two hits in each of Kentucky's last seven games... Joseph Rosa of Gastonia continues his on-base streak at all 15 games this season... Chris Shaw of Kentucky has also reached base in all 15 games he has played.

Pitching Gems: High Point's Justin Nicolino, Gastonia's Sam Bordner and Charleston's Jose Mesa, Jr. are the only ALPB pitchers to thus far achieve three wins this season... Kentucky's Tim Peterson has made eight appearances, each one lasting one inning, and has allowed just two hits and struck out 10 while not allowing a single run or a walk... Charleston pitchers have struck out 10 or more hitters in five straight games... Lexington pitchers only walked two Dirty Bird hitters in their three-game weekend series... Four CWV pitchers held Lexington to just one hit in a 2-0 win on 5/7... Gastonia two-hit Staten Island in Game 1 on May 8... High Point's 16 strikeouts of Kentucky on Opening Night remains the league-high.

Batting Masters: Lancaster owns the league's highest single-game batting with a .467 mark (21-45) in its win vs. York on 4/29... Kentucky has collected 10 or more hits in six of its last seven games and multiple doubles in four of its last five games... The Genomes have hit at least one double in 11 straight games and all but two games this season... Gastonia has received five or more walks in all but three games this season... High Point had a five-game streak from April 30-May 5 in which it hit multiple homers in each game.
